

From Our 2019 Co-chairs

Ezra Willey

The 2019 Campaign for Justice is underway and we would like to extend our sincerest thanks to all of you who have donated in prior years. It is undisputed that there is an access to justice gap in Maine and, as attorneys, we are in a unique position to help bridge this gap in a multitude of ways such as pro bono or “low bono” services. Maine, fortunately, has a fantastic infrastructure in place to help aid the State’s underserved population through its six legal aid provider organizations: Cumberland Legal Aid Clinic, Immigrant Legal Advocacy Project, Legal Services for the Elderly, Maine Equal Justice, Maine Volunteer Lawyers Project, and Pine Tree Legal Assistance.

While each of us can only do so much, individually, these organizations focus their time and resources on getting legal aid to as many Mainers as possible—and they depend on us, the State’s legal community, to survive. The need for these organizations’ services is as great today as ever, if not greater. As Co-chairs of this year’s Campaign, we ask that each of you consider donating. If you have not donated in the past, we ask that you considering giving, and if you have donated in the past, we ask that you give again, and consider increasing your donation this year.

Our goal this year is to increase the reach of the Campaign to all areas of Maine. By nature, the legal community is generally concentrated in the populous areas around Portland, Augusta, Lewiston-Auburn, and Bangor. However, while the need for legal aid in those areas is significant, there is an equal need for legal aid in the more rural communities of our State. These are areas that tend to be overlooked. This year, we want to focus on highlighting these areas of the State and encourage you to donate so that we can provide legal services to these greatly underserved areas of Maine.

As Dave Herzer and Bill Robitzek, the 2018 CFJ Co-chairs, said, “The return on your investment through the Campaign and its six legal service providers is real, meaningful, and enormous. An economic study, commissioned by the Maine Justice Foundation, found that each dollar invested in legal aid returns seven times as much in economic benefits to the state. The study demonstrated that legal services the provider organizations rendered to the indigent yielded a return of $105 million to the people of this State. Where else can you have the satisfaction of seeing your donations realize a return as great as 7:1.”

The need for your help is real, and the effect of your donations is great. Please help us make the 2019 Campaign the most successful yet; let’s help the legal aid providers reach every community in the State so that we can ensure that access to justice can be provided to all. Due process is a fundamental right that should be afforded to all citizens. The legal community needs to make sure that this right is enjoyed by all, regardless of socioeconomic status, not just those who can afford to pay for it.

Thank you and we look forward to working with you all on this Campaign

From Our 2018 Co-chairs

Dave Herzer

Bill Robitzek

As we embarked on the Campaign for 2018, we took in the successes of the past and planned for the challenges of the future. The 2017 Campaign enjoyed a record level of donations due to the inspiration of Peter DeTroy’s memory, the tireless efforts of Co-chairs Mary Roy and Paul Driscoll, and the growing support of Maine’s legal community.

Although 2017 stood out as a year of record giving in honor of Peter DeTroy, 2018 succeeded in continuing the upward trend of donations anticipated from all the previous years. This new height should not, however, engender complacency. The need for legal services is just as great; the work of the providers is just as important; and the generosity of the Maine legal community is just as crucial.

For those who never have donated to the Campaign in the past, or who have been reluctant to commit substantially, now is the time. The return on your investment is real, meaningful, and enormous. The economic study commissioned by the Maine Justice Foundation found that each dollar invested in legal aid returns seven times as much in economic benefits to the state. Where else can you have the satisfaction of seeing your donations realize a return as great as 7 to 1? Let’s not leave money on the table and people in need. Join the movement. Help sustain the highs realized in these last two years and support access to civil justice for the most vulnerable members of our State.

Dave Herzer and Bill Robitzek
2018 Campaign for Justice Co-chairs

“The return on your investment is real, meaningful, and enormous.”

Congratulations to the Peter DeTroy, III 2018 and 2019 Award Recipients

William C. Knowles

Peter DeTroy, III, had been the Chair-Elect for the 2017 Campaign before his death in May 2016. Over the course of his extraordinary career as a lawyer, DeTroy earned a reputation as one of the State's leading criminal defense attorneys, one of the State's leading plaintiff's attorneys in civil litigations, and a leading defense lawyer. He was a problem-solver, a counselor, and a zealous protector and defender of rights as exemplified in his volunteer and pro bono work for many nonprofit organizations in Maine.

To honor DeTroy's legacy and memory, the Peter DeTroy Award, III was established in 2017. This annual award honors an individual who has worked to remove barriers for people who are vulnerable or has worked to advance justice in Maine. The recipient must exemplify the same selfless spirit as Peter, whose own contributions in these areas, both public and private, were made not for recognition, but to further someone's humanity or for the good of

William C. Knowles, 2018 Peter DeTroy, III Award Recipient

William C. Knowles, a partner with Verrill Dana, was presented with the 2018 Peter DeTroy, III Award by Daniel E. Wathen, a former chief justice of the Maine Supreme Judicial Court. Highly regarded as a tireless advocate for fairness and justice for all, Knowles was recognized for his work volunteer and pro bono with, among others, Pine Tree Legal Assistance, the Maine Justice Action Group, the Maine Civil Liberties Union, and the Maine Trial Lawyers Association.

Sheldon J. Tepler

Sheldon J. Tepler, 2019 Peter DeTroy, III Award Recipient

Sheldon J. Tepler, a partner with Hardy, Wolf & Downing, was presented with the 2019 Peter DeTroy, III Award by Governor Janet Mills. Tepler's distinguished reputation for advocacy on behalf of Maine's most underserved populations is well established. His many legal and non-legal volunteer activities include work on behalf of Pine Tree Legal Assistance, Habitat for Humanity 7 Rivers, Big Brother Big Sisters of Mid-Maine, Mid-Coast Hunger Prevention, New Beginnings and Seeds of Peace.

Giving Stock Can Be a Wise Tax Move

The Campaign for Justice can accept gifts of stock. Giving highly appreciated stock can result in tax benefits for the donor. To give stock, please contact the Campaign office for gift and routing instructions.

“Civil legal aid providers in Maine rely on donated services, state and federal funding and private contributions, but it’s clearly not enough to meet the needs of the vulnerable Mainers. No one should have to go hungry or homeless for lack of legal representation.”

NOTE: A number of firms give firm gifts in addition to their members giving individually or in lieu of their members giving individually, for which the Campaign is very grateful. These firm gifts are combined with members' individual gifts in the calculations of averages and funds raised. Participation rates, however, have always recognized individual giving as the Campaign's success depends upon individual attorneys and judges encouraging and soliciting colleagues to contribute to the Campaign.

Thank You To Our Volunteers

The Maine legal community rises to the challenge year after year to support the work of the Campaign for Justice and our success is directly tied to the efforts of our volunteers. Through the dedication of our Campaign Co-chairs, division leaders, those who lead the charge within law firms, the courts, and corporations, the Campaign continues to succeed and grow. Each and every one of our volunteers is deeply committed to the idea that all people – even the most marginalized, the poor and victims of racism and all forms of unlawful discrimination – are entitled access to justice and to be treated with fairness, respect and dignity.

With the deepest gratitude, we thank each and every one of our volunteers for their extraordinary efforts.
